ONLINE TRAINING

Learning Management System

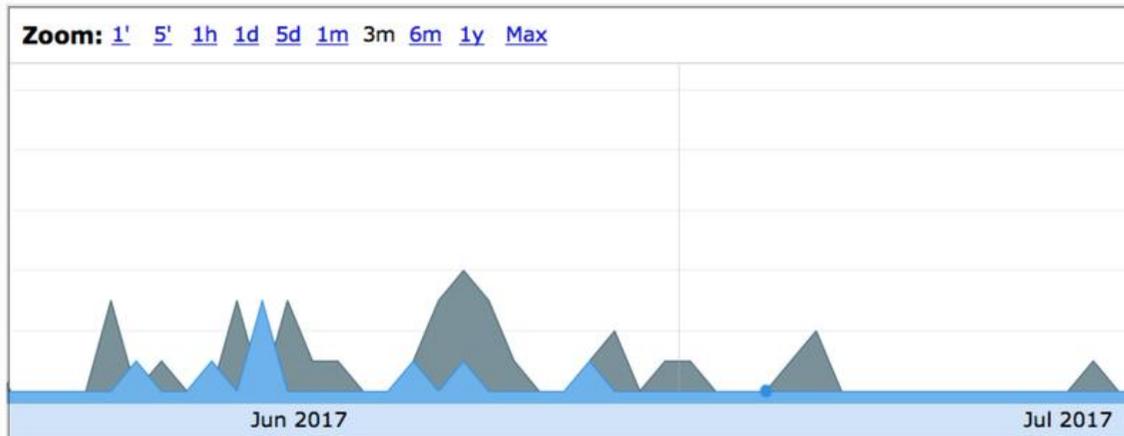

Our courses include a learning management system enabling administrators to view and track progress of employees, automate email notifications and reset courses for refresher training.

Reporting

Administrators can generate robust reporting on demand.

Executives can rely on stable and detailed audit trails of training completion records.

Certificate of Completion

- Cloud hosted, fully managed platform.
- Flexible and scalable.
- Client-branded.
- User login access.
- Multi-device compatible.
- User tracking and reporting.

Our courses are interactive with professional audio and animation. Participants can save and continue. The course is available for 12 months. Upon completion a certificate is rewarded.

The LearnForce Learning Management System makes your course available, anytime, anywhere, allowing training managers and administrators to record, assign and generate reports from a single administrative interface.

Collaboration

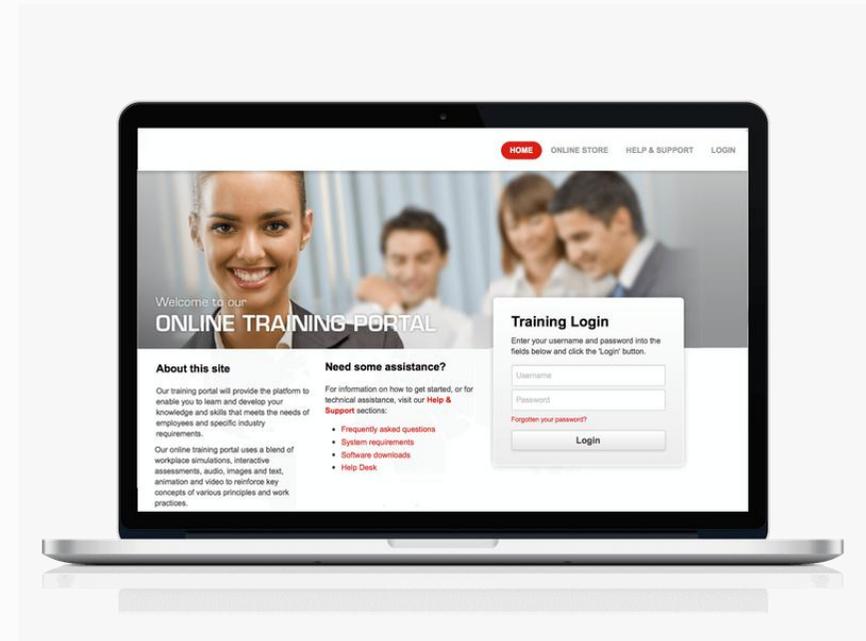

A dedicated project coordinator will guide you through the course development process from start to finish. We ensure your courseware is produced to the highest quality in line with agreed deliverables, time-frame and budget.
